

e-Learning Korea 2017: Conference

August 30-31, 2017 | Coex, Seoul, Korea

AN INTENTIONAL EDUCATION

Ben Nelson, Founder and CEO of Minerva

Building an intentional university requires thinking through outcomes for students first and designing the entire institution around those goals. Minerva is unique in that it built the most effective institution of higher education in the United States exactly through this process. We will discuss what it takes to reimagine an educational experience and how to operationalize the idea.
